

CHANDLER COLLINS

cc9db@virginia.edu

29 West Lawn, Charlottesville, VA 22903

(256) 454-6685

EDUCATION

University of Virginia

B.A., Public Policy and Leadership & Global Development Studies, GPA: 3.8

- Coursework / Certificates: Human-Computer Interaction, Research Methods and Data Analysis, Web Developer Bootcamp (Coursera), Social Psychology, Design Thinking Workshop (IDEO), Responsive Web Development (FreeCodeCamp)

Charlottesville, VA

August 2016 – May 2020

Hitotsubashi University

Global Education Program, Cumulative GPA: 4.00

Tokyo, Japan

September 2017 – January 2018

WORK EXPERIENCE

Yext

Technical Project Manager Intern

- Spearheaded creation of company design system site in collaboration with designers, developers, and project managers.
- Presented design system site to Director of Marketing. Site is still in use today as an internal design resource.
- Wrote tailored recommendations for online marketing, SEO optimization, and website UX/UI for Fortune 500 clients, leading to $2M+ in new client work.

Washington, D.C.

May – August 2019

Venture for America

Marketing & Media Intern

- Created and designed real-time data analytics dashboard for VP of Marketing to track key marketing metrics.
- Conducted over 25 interviews with company leadership generating 5,000+ views and an increase in number of applicants.

Detroit, MI

June – August 2018

Radify Labs Satellite Bootcamp

Project Manager & Participant

- Coordinated work across a global 4-member team to complete weekly projects.
- Completed 12-week bootcamp on software engineering, marketing, data science, web development, and entrepreneurship.

Charlottesville, VA

May – August 2018

PERSONAL PROJECTS

Buzzbelt: Arduino-Powered GPS Belt

Product Designer

- Designed and built a wearable GPS belt programmed in C++ using vibration motors to deliver directions for hands-free navigation benefitting blind individuals, motorcyclists, and cyclists.

Washington, D.C.

July – August 2019

Running Japan Documentary

Director, 2nd place at UVA Mini Film Fest

- Directed, filmed, and produced a 30-minute documentary film exploring Japanese long-distance running culture.
- Raised over $4,000 in funding via GoFundMe campaign and university grants.

Tokyo, Japan

August 2017 – May 2018

Alternative Spring Break

Site Leader

- Managed a $7,000 budget and led a service trip with 10 students to work in refugee shelters along the US/Mexico border.

San Juan, TX

March 2019

ACTIVITIES

UVA Humanitarian Collaborative

Director of Marketing & Policy Research Assistant

- Work chosen for exhibition at 2019 Global Refugee Forum in Geneva, Switzerland by the United Nations.
- Coordinated with professors, research assistants, and executives from the United Nations, Save the Children, and other NGOs to manage multiple concurrent research projects in the humanitarian aid field.

Charlottesville, VA

June 2018 – Present

Profit with Purpose

Training and Curriculum Lead & Business Analyst

- Created and led workshops on impact investing, business fundamentals, and investment due diligence for 20+ students.
- Analyzed early-stage social impact companies, presented reports to an investor panel, and advised company leadership.

Charlottesville, VA

August 2017 – December 2018

The Cavalier Daily

Photography Editor & Senior Photographer

- Photographed and edited images for Top 3 College Newspaper. Led training workshops for over 2 dozen students.
- Featured news photos on The Today Show and in The Washington Post.

Charlottesville, VA

August 2016 – Spring 2018

HONORS & AWARDS

- Selected to live on UVA's Lawn for service and achievement – 1 of 47 students awarded.
- Chosen as a 2019 Royster-Lawton Fellow in Social Enterprise – 1 of 8 UVA students chosen.
- Placed 2nd in UVA's 2018 Technology Case Competition.